PREFACE

This 2nd Issue of Volume 2 comes with 5 original articles in the field of Aerospace engineering, Aerodynamic system, Aircraft materials and structures. AVIA is published by Faculty of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering ITB, Institut Teknologi Bandung. AVIA continue its strong collaboration with Faculty of Engineering, Universitas Lampung and Java Scientific Academy, Indonesia.

We hope you will receive a fruitful academic and engineering information on this issue. We would like to have your contribution to the next issue in the field of but not limited to: Aerospace engineering, Aircraft maintenance, Materials and design in aircraft, applied Mechanical Engineering in Aviation science and technology.

We thank you all authors, reviewers, and contributors for the continuous support and attention. We are looking forward to receive more submission in the next following issues.

Best regards,

AVIA Editorial Bord
